 - i. Letter sent to DCR regarding contaminated and unsafe drinking water and outlines where findings are coming from.
 - ii. DCR responded to ACLU and claims that the water at Saguaro is undrinkable or causing medical issues is demonstrably false.
 - iii. There are many different reports that Saguaro is required to send to the Arizona Department of Environmental Quality.
 - iv. Water is tested daily for chlorine residue, monthly for chloroform bacteria annually, and every three years for lead and copper.
- IX. Commission’s Position on New Jail (1:10:50)
- Vote on calling for a pause in jail planning
 - i. Commission has been concerned with planning and development of the new OCCC.
 - ii. A replacement facility is much needed but disagree with the size and scope of the new facility as promoted by the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (DCR) and Department of Accounting and General Services (DAGS).
 - iii. In December 2020, The Commission recommended the State pause its planning and establish a community advisory group to help explore policies, practices, and programs that can provide alternatives to detention in a secure facility.
 - iv. In January 2022, the Commission reaffirmed that position urging an advisory committee to convene to review and if necessary to revise the planning that has been done and actively participate in the planning going forward.
 - v. Request for an advisory committee was not considered by DCR, yet an alternative process for engaging community and considering alternatives was implemented under Max Otani, who got in touch with the University of Hawai‘i School of Architecture Community Design Center to help.
 - Motions by the Commission
 - i. Motion to move the Commission supports the decision of the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation and the Department of Accounting and General Services to replace the current OCCC which is dilapidated and beyond rehabilitation.

- ii. Motion to move the Commission supports the selection of the former Halawa animal site as appropriate for the new facility.
- iii. Motion to move the Commission recommend and support diversion programs and alternatives to incarceration to reduce the number of beds currently proposed by DCR for the new OCCC.
- iv. Motion to move the Commission supports a design that provides appropriate programming space and opportunities for the detention population
- v. Motion to move the Commission to not support a pause in the planning and design of the new facility.

- No votes were made by the Commission on any of the motions.
